BODY IN CREEK. MAY HAVE DIED IN SLEEP

Sheriff Undecided Whether She Was Suicide or Somnambulist.

Birmingham, March 6.-Shortly before noon today searchers discovered the body of Mrs. Annie Davies, 22. of North Birmingham, lodged against a willow branch in Village Creek. The woman disappeared from her home of Stouts street some time between 11:20 o'clock last night and 5 o'clock this morning. Her husband missed her when he awoke this morning.

Deputy Coroner John R. T. Rives is investigating. He is working on two theories—one of suicide and the other that the woman might have been a somnambulist. The husband, W. C. Davis, believes she committed suicide, Tall Yellow Man, Laden Halted by a Keen Sheriff Durham, N. C., March 6.—Being dipped off that a tall yellow negro-driving a little red mule, would reach the outskirts of Durham today with a wagon load of "good old North Carolina corn" (winking at him and omitting the word liquor), proved a good joke on the sheriff.

County Sheriff Jackson placed three of his deputies at the desig-nated spot to await the negro. Pretty soon the deputies spotted their man. They stopped the negro, and after searching the wagon, the "good old North Carolina corn" turned out to be about fifteen bushels of corn on the cob and eight
